

Kings and Queens by Birthright

A Summer Celebration Week
Findhorn, July 12-19th, 2008

Do you want to bring Celebration and Enchantment into your life? Be creative and have fun? Join us for a delightful week of Song, Ritual and Celebration in the Park!

This year our summer celebration will be dedicated to investigating and rediscovering our Kingly and Queenly nature. How do we live, how do we treat ourselves and each other when we feel the dignity, the joy, the beauty of Kings and Queens in our hearts? Do we become masters or servants? Is it about giving or receiving? Feeling into these questions we will create costumes, act, play music, create sumptuous feasts, appoint jesters and minstrels, sing and dance, connect with the elements, spend time in nature and bring joy-filled Celebration into the community!

Course cost: £140-210, Meals £60, Accommodation at cost of B+B,
Bookings: barbara@sacredsongs.net, Tel.: Ian Turnbull +44 1309 690253

Book early to avoid disappointment, this is high season!

Francois Monnet is an accomplished Theatre director, actor, artist, poet and the creator of festivals and theatre based rituals that celebrate our mythic journey through the seasons of life.

Barbara Swetina is a gifted musician who plays many instruments and loves to share songs and dances from many cultures. Her love for music is infectious and can turn a group of strangers into an multi-harmony choir within minutes.

Ian Turnbull is a well-loved member of the Findhorn community who turned one of his dreams into reality by building the nature sanctuary. He loves singing and celebration and the collective spirit it manifest within us.
